Has Legs Are Slim.

Looking at Willard from the waist up it certainly does seem that he carries more than the IN- pounda not which is credited to him—but then look at Willard's legs. There's your answer, it has pedals were proportionstely as huge as his torso, the champion surely would weigh around IN- in fighting condition. But his legs, especially the lower part of them, are quits alim for so huge a man. huge a man. will go into the ring weighing over 250, in Willard's plus are thinner than those the spinion of ring experts.

But should that affair develop into a real hattle from the boginning to the end it will revive the game here.
The public wants—but hardly dares nope for—a simm-bang battle with action every minute. It wants a battle of the old kind—free hitting, fierce rushing—and no stalling.
If Moran and Willard fight that way,
they'll ack as maviors of the game here,
If they don't, they'll acr as executioners.

Willard's Deceptive Weight.
The folks here find it hard to hieve Jean Willard beams only 2725;
pounds, fully garbed, at the present time. That was the figure announced after the champion had been weighed in secretly.

"That Boxing commission has no reason for cheating 10 or 20 pounds in Willard's weight, but by goily Ple bet

"BUS" GILLETTE, who was the pitching star of the Commercial league last year, would make a good man for McCloskey to try out with the professionals this year. It is not known whether the youngster cares to enter the professional game but if he does he should make good and would be a valuable man for the local team.

MATRIMONY seems to be playing havoc with the motor racing stars. Louis Disbrow was hitched double at Chicago on Saturday night and immediately announced his re-tirement as a driver. Len Ormsby, a well known driver, was here last week with the "reason" for his re-tirement and two or three other stars of the game have announced their retirement during the past few BASEBALL men who like hunting in the off-season all know the famous Comiskey camp in Wisconsin. Last year, American league baseball men sent a big shipment of baseball goods to the Canadian troops on the French battle front. The Canadian government has reciprocated Jy consenting to the shipment of two live caribou from northern Ontario to the Comiskey shooting preserve.

EL PASO athletes are making a very fair showing in the Y. M. C. A. Hexathlon events. The youngsters are doing wonderfully well and if they keep up their good work in the next two or three years there will be a crop of young men here who can hold up their end with any city in the country when it comes to clean athletics.

This was the first time there two foams have been seen in a league game this year and both teams put tip a trand exhibition of the national partitie, considering that it was their first time out. There was an unusually large attendance for a midweek game, and this only goes to show that grandars school baseball in El foso is soing to be well attended this season. It was surprising to see so many of the schools. And say they sure did root, too! There was a number of the teachers out to see the hitle fellows perform and it is to be hoped that more teachers and girls will attend these games.
